PHILLIPS' PREDICTION

Why Should Not the Gubernatorial Dark Horse Come From Marion's Green Pastures

Will W. Phillips, who is the successful business pusher behind John Caldwell's unique Lake City Index, was in the city over Sunday visiting his sister, Mrs. Ley, and made the Star a friendly call. He was full of politics. He intimates that while his delegation is unimpaired, they lean toward Jennings. Phillips is a hot Jennings number, but is ice cold against Sheats.

He is strongly under the impression it will be the largest state convention that ever sat in Florida and a dark horse will be the outcome of that gathering. If Will's predictions come true and a "dark horse" must appear we trust General Robert Bullock, of Marion, will catch the blanket.

OLD NAT CHAFING THE BIT

Old Nat Walker, the Jeffersonian warhorse of Wakulla, is on the rampage because he and his friends were turned down as delegates at the late congressional convention at Tallahassee. He says it was done without rhyme or reason, law or authority. No evidence was taken in the contest but delegates seated were named by 90 per cent of the voters brought to the polls on a free train and in the interest of Hon. F. T. Myers for governor, and whose democracy is questionable. He predicts the chickens will come home to roost at Jacksonville and the delegates sat on at Tallahassee will be vindicated and placed on the high white throne at Jacksonville. When that scene is sprung on the Jacksonville convention, with old Nat as the hottest Roman of them all, it will illumine a page of democratic political history that will be worth several days' travel to see. Johnnie, get your grip and be in the fun.

CIRCUMSTANCES ALTER CASES

Good Reasons for the Establishment of New Voting Precincts

There was some adverse criticism on the action of the board of county commissioners last week because of the increase of voting precincts, deemed by some of the taxpayers an unnecessary burden, as there were but few more voters now than there had been four years ago and the increase was deemed a waste of the people's money.

Now, what are the facts in the case? They are, that in the precincts where additional polling places were called for and granted, there has been a large influx of black labor, on turpentine farms and in phosphate mines, during the past few years, which at times became unruly and lawless and when such exigencies arise, prompt action must be taken to conserve the peace of the community, and to do this officers must be within call to promptly issue the necessary warrants. Every polling place is entitled to a justice of the peace and a constable and unless certain territory is organized into a local judicial precinct, such officers cannot be commissioned and hence when the law is invoked to restore order or protect life, no officers are within reasonable reach to act.

We are of the opinion that if the taxpayers who complain of reckless legislation on the part of the county commissioners along lines indicated, lived in the precincts in which polling places were granted, instead of condemning, would heartily applaud their acts.

The people of the precincts legislated for are also taxpayers and are entitled to all the privileges and protection accorded those living in more favored sections. Circumstances exist in these precincts now that did not a few years ago, hence alter materially the legislation necessary to meet their wants.
